

The Department of Political Science and Public Administration and
The Department of Global Studies
The University of North Carolina at Charlotte

THE ROBERT G. FOWLER, JR., ESQUIRE
INTERNATIONAL SCHOLARSHIP
2023-2024

Criteria

Students must be majoring in either Political Science or International Studies and demonstrate a strong interest in the other discipline. Special consideration will be given to those students meeting these criteria and considering a career in law. At least sixty (60) hours of university course work (including transfer hours), incorporating a minimum of twelve (12) hours in international/cross-cultural studies, must be completed by the end of the Spring 2023 semester with an overall grade point average of at least 3.2. Participation in extra-curricular (e.g., Model United Nations, Pre-Law Society, North Carolina Student Legislature) and/or community activities is expected. The scholarship is for the 2023-2024 academic year. Scholarship recipients must be enrolled as an undergraduate degree-seeking student at UNC Charlotte in 2023-2024.

Application Procedures

Qualified students may apply for the scholarship by visiting the university website at scholarships.charlotte.edu. A completed application consists of a resume, an introductory letter to the scholarship committee (stating personal interests, qualifications, and academic and career aspiration), a two to three-page essay, written specifically for this scholarship, regarding an international issue, event, or challenge that is of particular interest to you, and three letters of reference (including at least one from a UNC Charlotte faculty member). This scholarship application can be found at scholarships.charlotte.edu.
